

Valuable Benefits of Properly Maintained Boiler Water for Animals

- Little to no scale on boiler tubes
- Less fuel consumption
- Less blow down required
- Less water usage
- Longer boiler life with less maintenance cost
- Less chemical usage – cuts cost
- Higher output on Pellet mill per horsepower
- Pellets with no chemical coating cools easier
- Greater gains on livestock per pound of feed
- Healthier animals with no chemicals in feed
- Healthier animals require little to no drugs
- More cook on high starch diets that increases energy levels
- Increased pellet quality with higher pellet durability
- Decreased diet cost due to increased energy levels in starches
- Fewer ulcer problems with swine
- No bloody diarrhea in poultry

Quality Boiler Water is affordable when properly maintained, just try it.
This goes for extruded pet food as well.